Permanent Road Work

Work began Monday on a piece of permanent state work on Randolph road, which will connect the permanent road near the Gallup place, put in last year, with the road beginning at the turn near the Warren farm. This will make a stretch of permanent road from Morrisville to the Allen farm. It is expected that there will be some money left from the $1000 allowed for permanent roads, which will be used in grading at the new bridge south of the Neuland farm.

Raymond Ellis, who passed the necessary examination and enlisted as musician in the 1st. Vermont cavalry, returned home Saturday and spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Ellis. He returned Monday to Camp Gov. Gates.

Lamoille Valley Fair

Work has commenced on the fair grounds in preparation for the fair, which annual event will be here again in less than three weeks. Considerable work on the fences was made necessary by the recent wind storm.

Automobiles will be admitted to all parts of the grounds this year and all roads will lead to Morrisville on Aug. 29-31.

There will be six acts in front of the grand stand each day and judging from the entries the racing should be extra good.

A Union Service

Rev. Dr. David G. Downey of Brooklyn, N. Y., will occupy the pulpit at the Congregational church next Sunday morning. It will be a union service of the Methodist and Congregational churches. Dr. Downey, who is editor in chief of all Methodist publications in this country and has a national reputation as one of the leading pulpits orators in that denomination.

Auto Collides with Wagon

Late last Wednesday afternoon, as Mr. and Mrs. James Peck were returning from Morrisville to their home in Wolcott, they met with an accident in which Mr. Peck was more or less injured. When near the C. P. Smith farm, an auto driven by Harry Labare for J. A. Royston, in attempting to pass them, struck a rear wheel of the Peck wagon. Mr. Peck was thrown out and the horse, which is a spirited animal, started to run. Mrs. Peck remained in the wagon until the horse had dragged Mr. Peck some distance, when she was thrown out and the animal freeing himself from the driver, ran nearly to Wolcott before he was stopped. Mrs. Peck was taken to her home and a physician was called. It was found that no bones were broken and her condition was much improved today. Mr. Peck was not injured and the horse and wagon were none the worse for the experiment.

Mr. Labare, who has the reputation of being a very careful driver, is unable to account for the accident.

Chautauqua Popular

The coming Chautauqua Week in Morrisville promises to be one of the most popular events ever held in this place. Already calls are beginning to come from all directions for season tickets and the canvassers are beginning to do their work.

The local management has practically decided upon the play grounds in the rear of Peoples Academy for the location of the tent and it is thought, by moving the fences and using the Thomas lane, there will be room enough. Should this location prove inadequate the lot on Maple street, south of the Moulton residence will be used.

About sixteen Morrisville young men went to Barre Sunday in the Page auto truck, where they witnessed a game of base ball between Rutland and Barre.

Rev. Birney B. Bosworth of New York City occupied the pulpit at the Congregational church last Sunday morning, delivering a strong and scholarly sermon to a good sized audience. Mr. Bosworth, who is spending the summer in Vermont, was accompanied by Mrs. Bosworth and three sons, Clarence, David and Boardman, and a nephew, Marsh Derby of Brooklyn, N. Y. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. C. Cheney while in town. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bosworth were classmates at the U. V. M. of Mr. Cheney and F. W. Mould.

HYDE PARK

Willard R. Jewett of Bristol, Conn., spent a few days here the past week.

Brig Mac is taking a brief lay-off from office duties and enjoying a vacation at Caspian Lake.

Mrs. Rhoda Hood and children and C. E. Denio visited at Ned Smith's in Fairfield last Sunday.

Miss Vera Pullington returned Tuesday from a week's vacation spent at her home in Cambridge.

Pat'k Corry and his sister, Miss Anna Correy of Montpelier were guests of Miss Mary Finnegan, Monday.

Miss Velma Smith of Fairfield is visiting her friend, Isadore Hood.

Mrs. Winn George returned home Sunday, after spending a week here with her sister-in-law, Mrs. James Jewett.

Miss Katherine Finnegan and her friend, Miss Sager, from Minneapolis, are visiting at the home of Terrence Finnegan.

An infant child of J. P. Miller who lives on the farm formerly owned by John Gray, was buried in the village cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cristy and Mr. and Mrs. Orren Farr visited the former's brother, Rev. W. C. Cristy, the first of the week at Canaan.

Miss Rita Gale and her friend, Miss Lillian Adams of Westford are spending a few weeks at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Page Ufford.

Prof. and Mrs. Crosby, who are touring northern New York just now with a Redpath Chautauqua company, spent Sunday last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Allen at Pittsford, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown have gone on an auto trip to Rhode Island, where they will visit their son Clyde. During their absence R. F. D. matters on route No. 2 will be looked after by Levi Pratt, substitute.

The approach to the bridge over the railroad track is in need of repair. Autoists cross the town in vehement language and well they might for this negligence. A Burlington man recently broke a spring and a Morrisville lady had a pair of $15.00 eyeglasses broken by the jar in passing down over the bridge. A load of gravel put in there occasionally would remedy the evil.

The following, from a Greenfield, Mass., paper will interest many here:—

Fred N. Keeler is anticipating a visit from his son, Nelson B. Keeler, who is expected here with his family about Sept. 1. The younger Mr. Keeler is an electrical engineer in charge of important work in the Philippine Islands, where he has been for more than four years, during which time he has not seen his parents. He is now on his way home, visiting China, Japan, the Panama Canal and other places of interest en route. He has two months' leave of absence.

Jewett-Ladeau

At eight o'clock this (Wednesday) a. m., at the home of the bride's father, occurred the marriage of Willard Jewett and Miss Lillian, daughter of John Ladeau. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. R. Hamlin in the presence of a few relatives and particular friends of the contracting parties. The happy couple left in an auto for a wedding trip, the ultimate destination being Bristol, Conn., where the groom has employment. Congratulations from all directions.

The Golf Club

Interest in the Lamoille County Golf Links is great. Several shares have been taken, but there is still need of more takers, as those in charge want to make it a first-class event in all respects. If you haven't been seen, "get in touch" with B. W. McFarland at Hyde Park, W. T. Slayton at Morrisville or H. V. Gordon of Johnson. It is a county affair and residents of any town therein are urged to become interested.

Democratic County Convention

The Democrats of Lamoille County are hereby notified to meet at Hyde Park on Friday, Aug. 11th, at 1.30 p. m., for the purpose of filing nomination papers of the several candidates to be voted on at the Primary Election to be held September 12th. A full attendance is desired. Per order of County Committee.
F. P. COLLINS, Chairman.
